CALL FOR IFPSC 2024

We held a successful conference in Dubai in February 2023. With the pleasure of being together with our colleagues at our conference. While reinforcing friendships with colleagues we knew before, we made new and good friends. With the positive feedback and contributions of our colleagues after the conference, we started to prepare for our 2nd conference with greater enthusiasm. This year, we are happy to organize International Fine Arts Conference in Barcelona.

Through IFPSC 2024, we are organizing a scientific and artistic event that will bring together academics and artists from different parts of the world. You can participate in this event not only with your papers, but also with your artworks. During the IFPSC, you can exhibit your artworks through online or physically. We offer you three different exhibition possibilities to show your artworks. You can open an online solo exhibition of only your own works or participate in an online group exhibition. Or you can exhibit your work in the international poster design exhibition that will be held physically.

We strive for art to be discovered by a wider audience and are pleased to invite you to the International Fine Arts and Printing Conference to be held in Barcelona, on February 15-16, 2024. We are sure that critical studies and researches about the position and future of art will be presented at this conference, which will be the meeting point of all art disciplines.

Regards.
